

Use Case “Place order” outline

1. Basic flow

Step 1. Go to step 1 of the use case “View Cart”

Step 2. Request to place order

Step 3. The software checks the availability of the products in the cart and inform the user

Step 4. User update delivery’s information and instructions

Step 5. The user selects place rush order or not

Step 6. The software checks the input information

Step 7. The software calculates and informs the fee to the user

Step 8. The user confirms the fee

Step 9. Switch to Pay Order use case, end the “Place order” use case

2. Alternative flow

| No | Location | Condition | Action | Resume location |
|----|-----------|---|--|---------------------------------------|
| 1 | At step 3 | If there is an unavailable item | <ul style="list-style-type: none">The software switch to the update cart use case. | Step 1 of Use case “Update Cart” |
| 2 | At step 5 | If the user selects to place rush order | <ul style="list-style-type: none">The software switch to the place rush order case | Step 1 of Use case “Place Rush Order” |
| 3 | At step 6 | If the info is invalid | <ul style="list-style-type: none">The software notifies the info is invalid, asking the user to input again. | At step 4 |
| 4 | At step 8 | If the user not confirm | <ul style="list-style-type: none">Escape the ordering page, return to the view page | At step 1 |